Royal River Casino, Royal Room for a Community Meeting

Oglala Lakota artist, Keith BraveHeart, respectfully calls upon the Wakpa Ipak'san Dakota, as relatives, for a community gathering and sharing of voices.

BraveHeart is a contemporary artist who received his Master's in Fine Art with emphasis in painting from the University of South Dakota. He works in arts education, film making, exhibition curation, and community-engaged arts across the state of SD and regionally within the Northern Plains. His work as an artist combines art, culture, community, and life. Recently, BraveHeart co-curated the traveling exhibition, Horse Nation of the Ochethi Sakowin, an effort that gathered artists and community to honor and celebrate the Horse Nation as relative to the Ochethi Sakowin.

BraveHeart has been commissioned by the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe to create original paintings which will depict the Wakpa Ipak'san Dakota, to accompany the newly remodeled Royal River Casino and its administration spaces. Artworks will focus on an authentic narrative and history of the Wakpa Ipak'san Dakota, and incorporate the contemporary voice of FSST members. Artworks created will serve as documentations of cultural identity and significance, and rely on a community engaged process. BraveHeart would like the relatives of FSST to know that their investment into "their" original artworks is critical and will provide the crucial energy for these artworks to speak to visitors, relatives, and future generations.

Please join us on Friday, November 16, 2018 at Royal River Casino, Royal Room for a Community Meeting, from 3:00 pm – 5:00 pm. We are asking our Wakpa Ipak'san Dakota families to share their voices, stories, and memories, as influence and inspiration in the creation of the planned original artworks. You are welcome to bring photos (historic and recent), or any relevant content that could help share cultural significance.

Keith BraveHeart and all relatives involved with this project Thank You, and look forward to our community gathering.

Community Update

Dear Tribal Members,

As we are well into Fall we are hoping you are keeping warm and enjoying these cool days. We understand that the community still has many questions regarding our Housing Development Plan, so we wanted to take this Newsletter to provide updates, and paint a picture of our vision for Housing in our community in the upcoming years.

There are four housing major housing initiatives that being pursued:

Updating the current housing stock, with support from an Indian Community Development Block Grant

Development of four 4-Plexes, via a Grant from the Shakopee Nation

Development of a 10-Bed Supportive Housing Unit, with support from an Indian Housing Block Grant

Development of 20 stand-alone Single-Family Homes, to be funded by the Section 184 Loan Guarantee Program.

We have two significant updates in regards to the above list of housing events taking place. The first is in regards to the two block grants. The first block grant we are applying for is called the Indian Country Development Block Grant, otherwise known as ICDBG. This grant is for American Indian and Alaska Native Communities in the development of decent housing, establishing a suitable living environment, and promote economic opportunities. The latter is the Indian Housing Block Grant, IHBG, established in 1998, it has supported development of housing communities in Indian County.

The amount of funds available under ICDBG this year is capped at $1 million for Tribes within our Region. If our application is successful, these funds will go towards updating our current housing stock. We anticipate applying for these funds within the next 30 days.

The IHBG will be having a special $100 million competition in the spring of 2019. The ceiling amount of funds available under this competition for each Tribes has yet to be determined. We are, however, anticipating that at least $1 million will be available to support the development of a Supportive Housing Facility as well as additional single-family homes.

We have hired a Grant Writer to develop the ICDBG application this fall. This Grant Writer has been very successful in the application of previous ICDBG applications in the past.

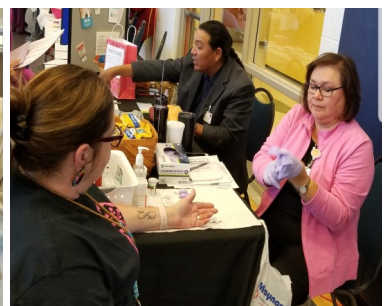

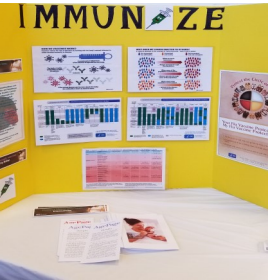

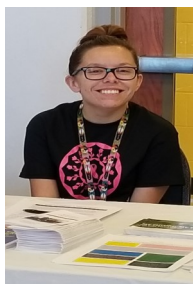

The other update is also in regards to the Supportive Housing Facility. We are planning on having a two-day meeting in November with members of the Executive Committee, Clinic Staff and Tribal Government Staff to begin a preliminary discussion on Supportive Housing. This meeting will bring together personnel who have seen the impact substance abuse has had on our community. During the meeting we will work together to establish our goals and assign duties for the upcoming year in development and implementation of a Supportive Housing Facility. We will be sure to update you all on the success and outcome of the meeting in the upcoming months.

Sincerely,

Executive Committee

THANK YOU!!

We would like to deeply thank David Kills A Hundred and the tribe for their ongoing support to Native American Education and the students at Flandreau Public Schools. Mr. Biever, 8th grade social studies teacher, had reached out to the Title VI Office to get assistance connecting with a resource to bring into his classroom to help teach about tribal government. The students prepared questions ahead of time for David to answer. I was unable to attend the event, but I was told from both David and the teacher that the lesson was well received.

Thank you,

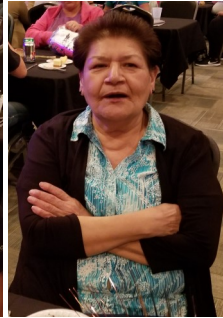

Elisabetta James

Because all of us believe and understand in the fabric of the common bond of why we call ourselves American is to care for the men and women who wear the uniform; and when they take off the uniform, we care for them when they are veterans. – Steve Buyer This nation will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave. – E. Davis

It is easy to take liberty for granted, when you have never had it taken from you. – Unknown

Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same. – Ronald Reagan

For it has been said so truthfully that it is the soldier, not the reporter, who has given us the freedom of the press. It is the soldier, not the poet, who has given us freedom of speech. It is the soldier, not the agitator, who has given us the freedom to protest. It is the soldier who salutes the flag, serves beneath the flag, whose coffin is draped by the flag, who gives that protester the freedom to abuse and burn that flag. – Zell Miller

Some people live an entire lifetime and wonder if they have ever made a difference in the world, but the Marines don't have that problem. – Ronald Reagan

The Watch

For seventeen years...this Airman has stood the watch
While some of us were in our bunks at night...this airman stood
the watch
While some of us were in school learning our trade...this airman stood the watch
Yes, even before some of us were born into this world...this
airman stood the watch
In those years when the storm clouds of war were seen brewing on the horizon of history this airman stood the watch
Many times he would cast an eye and see his family standing there...needing his guidance and help...needing that hand to hold during those hard times...but he still stood the watch
He stood the watch for seventeen years he stood the watch so that we, our families, and our fellow countrymen could sleep soundly in safety each and every night
knowing that an airman stood the watch
Today we are here to say "Fellow Airmen, the watch stands relieved. Relieved by those you have led, guided, and trained.
TSgt Herrick, you stand relieved. We have the watch.

Technical Sergeant Lucas L Herrick is currently assigned to the 27th Special Operations Logistics Readiness Squadron at Cannon Air Force Base, New Mexico. Sergeant Herrick joins from Ft. Bragg, North Carolina. He enlisted in the Air Force in July 19, 2001 and subsequently married the former Native Chambers on September 28, 2003. They now have three young men, Lance, Landon, and Logan Herrick.

Sergeant Herrick's first duty assignment was Randolph Air Force Base, Texas. While there he deployed to Prince Sultan Air Base, Saudi Arabia. In June 2003 he received orders to Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota. While stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base, he deployed to Edmonton Alberta Canada in support of Exercise "Maple Flag". In February 2005, Sergeant Herrick and family moved to Altus Air Force Base, Oklahoma. From there he deployed to Forward Operating Base Speicher, Iraq in July 2005 and performed as a HISS Gun Truck Company Vehicle Operator, Weapon System Operator, and Combat Life Saver. Shortly thereafter, he deployed to Camp Arifjan, Kuwait in June 2007 as a Lead Vehicle Commander assigned to the 424th Medium Truck Detachment. During this deployment he was awarded the 168th Sustainment Brigade Combat Patch. Additionally he was recognized with the 40th Sustainment Brigade US Army Driver's badge for completing 12,600 accident free miles in a combat zone. Sergeant Herrick deployed once again in July 2008 to Camp Arifjan, Kuwait as a Lead Vehicle Commander assigned to 424th Medium Truck Detachment. In September 2010, Sergeant Herrick and family was reassigned to Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska. During his time there he had the opportunity to be an Airman Down Leader. In June 2011, Sergeant Herrick was transferred to Cannon Air Force Base, New Mexico where he deployed in May 2013 for the first and last time to Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar as Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of Logistics for Air Force Special Operations Detachment - Iraq.

Sergeant Herrick and family have given more than 17 years of loyal and dedicated service to his great nation and are ready and looking forward to their future adventures, opportunities, and challenges.

WHAT IS METHAMPHETAMINE?

Methamphetamine is a potent central nervous system stimulant. It can be snorted, smoked, ingested or taken orally. Slang terms for meth are “crank”, “speed”, “crystal” and “ice”.

WHAT ARE SIGNS OF METH USE?

Dilated pupils, sweating, dry mouth, flushed skin and tremors. Users may also show aggressive and psychotic behavior, irritability, anxiety, paranoia and auditory hallucinations.

WHAT CAN I DO?

There are things private citizens can do to ensure meth manufacturing is not occurring in their neighborhoods. Drug dealers and meth manufacturers have common habits which are easily observed. Any single activity may or may not be solid proof that drug dealing or meth manufacturing is occurring. However, a combination of the following may be reason for concern.

- *Frequent visitors or increased activity at all times of the day or night.
- *Occupants appear unemployed; yet seem to have plenty of money and pay bills with cash.
- *Occupants are unfriendly, may display paranoid behavior, appear secretive about activities and watch cars suspiciously as they pass by.
- *Occupants set garbage out for pick up in another collection area.
- *Chemical odors coming from the house, garbage or detached buildings or evidence of chemical or waste dumping i.e. burn pits, or “dead spots” in the yard.
- *Windows blackened or curtains always drawn.

If you witness a combination of these activities, report your concerns to the local police or sheriff’s department immediately. Do not confront the individual with your suspicions or enter a suspected lab.

Special thanks to Annie Wakeman for making the Fry Bread!

Terissa Taylor, age 10, granddaughter of "Butch" Myron Taylor, daughter of Nick Taylor and Becky Cramer has been shooting archery for the last two and a half years. Terissa started out shooting with a compound bow in the local 4-H Shooting Sports Program. After about a year Terissa grew out of her beginner bow and switched over to an Olympic Recurve bow. She practices three to four times a week or more shooting between 150 to 300 arrows a time. This last year she has competed in several competitions. In June she competed at the Midwest Youth Archery Invitational and placed 2nd in individual and 3rd in teams. She also participated in the USAA South Dakota State Outdoor Target Championship and Rushmore Cup in Yankton, SD. She placed 1st in the State Outdoor Target Championship where she currently holds the state record for her age division. Terissa also took 2nd place in the Rushmore Cup. In April Terissa participated in the 4-H State Shoot for the and received 4 state award placings. In September Terissa competed in the NFAA Outdoor National Target Competition where she took 3rd place. Terissa is currently training hard and is excited to compete at the NFAA International Vegas Shoot in Las Vegas, NV in February along with other competitions between now and then. Shooting at the Vegas Shoot will be an amazing experience for Terissa. In 2018 there were 3500 archers that attended, and it is the largest single venue indoor archery tournament in the world. Her friends and family will be having an Indian Taco Fundraiser with Fry Bread made by Marcie Wakeman on December 1st from 10:30 to 6:30 at Eastman Hall. Terissa will have her bow and awards there to answer any questions you may have. Watch for flyers and come support Terissa!

Stefan Tangen, Tribal Resilience Liaison, Great Plains Tribal Water Alliance (GPTWA)/ North Central Climate Adaptation Science Centre (NC CASC)

Stefan Tangen is the Tribal Resilience Liaison for the Great Plains Tribal Water Alliance (GPTWA). He works to connect tribes throughout the North Central Region (WY, MT, ND, SD, NE, KS, CO) to research and resources at the North Central Climate Adaptation Science Center (NC CASC). Stefan began working with indigenous communities on climate issues on the coast of northwest Alaska in Nome and Shaktoolik. He is a graduate of the Master of Natural Resources Management (MNRM) program at the University of Alaska Fairbanks (UAF) where he studied socio-ecological systems and climate adaptation planning. He was also part of the 2015 cohort of the Resilience and Adaptation Program (RAP) at UAF which focuses on cross disciplinary research centered on climate change. As the regional Tribal Climate Liaison, Stefan partners with tribal resource managers, tribal communities, and tribal colleges/universities throughout the region to increase resilience and Section 19-3-2. Qualification for Per Capita Payments.

In accordance with the policy set forth in Section 19-1-1 of this Title, to fairly satisfy the needs of tribal members who contribute to the advancement and self-determination of the Tribe by residing within the Reservation community, to provide incentives to members to return to the Reservation community to further the advancement of tribal self-determination, and to enhance the Reservation community socially, economically and culturally, the Tribe adopts the policy that limits monthly disbursements of per capita payments to qualified tribal members who have physically resided for a period of one (1) year within the Reservation community, as those terms are defined in Section 19-1-1.1 of this Title.

Section 19-3-6. Maintaining Residency.

Persons who have been granted a Confirmation of Residency shall maintain physical residency within the Reservation community. Failure to do so shall result in the loss of qualified tribal member status.

Qualified tribal members must notify the Executive Committee or its designee of any change of residency status, including the following:

1. Moving out of the Reservation community, whether temporary or permanent.
2. Leaving the Reservation community for an extended period of thirty (30) days or more.

Higher education exemption - In order to qualify for student exemption, the member must be enrolled as a full-time student as determined by the school's registrar. Vocational education or certificate programs are eligible for the higher education exemption if the student meets all other factors.

Students shall be required to submit adequate proof to the Per Capita Committee or its designee of their continuing eligibility to receive this exemption, and students must authorize the Per Capita Office to obtain any information needed from the school in order to verify the student's full time student status. Failure to do so may result in loss of exempt status.

Enrollment in online, general education degree courses, correspondence courses, or other types of distance learning classes do not allow a member to qualify for the student exemption. Any student who is placed on funding suspension through the tribe's higher education program for failing to maintain the minimum credit hour requirements shall lose his or her exempt status. The student shall thereafter be required to renew his or her residency in accordance with this Title to be eligible for the per capita payment.

Because degree programs have different credit and time requirements, there will be no time limitation on this exemption, so long as the student is enrolled full-time. Upon completion or termination of the student's higher education program, the member shall resume physical residence within the Reservation community within ninety (90) days.

Failure to resume physical residence shall result in loss of exempt status and the member will no longer be deemed a qualified tribal member for per capita purposes.

If the student's higher education exemption expires or terminates and the student wishes to continue receiving the per capita benefits via the higher education exemption, he or she may apply to the Per Capita Committee for a continuation of their exemption. An extension may be granted at the discretion of the Per Capita Committee and is a non-appealable decision.

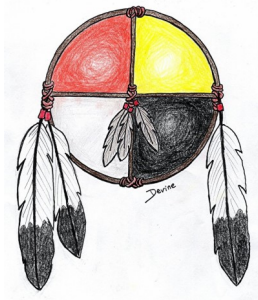

Students who have qualified for the higher education exemption in the spring semester, and who are enrolled in classes full time in the fall semester immediately following will be allowed to maintain their higher education exemption throughout the summer. Students must furnish proof to the Per Capita Committee that they are actually enrolled in the fall semester full time to be eligible. Students will still be required to apply for the higher education exemption for the upcoming academic year.

Student who have an internship, externship, or student-teaching requirement to obtain their degree will be allowed to continue to receive the higher education exemption during that internship, externship, or student-teaching and will not need to maintain a full-time course load.

In-patient Treatment Exemption - In order to qualify for an exemption for in-patient treatment, the member must have been physically residing within the Reservation community for a period of one continuous year prior to the granting of the exemption. Before leaving the Reservation Community, the member must notify the Per Capita Office in writing, include a letter regarding which treatment facility they are attending and how long treatment will last, and sign a HIPAA Release for any and all medical information provided to the Tribe. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of successful completion or other program termination, the member will be required to notify the Per Capita Committee that they are living within the Reservation community, and provide Confirmation of Residency and other paperwork as required.

Any qualified member who is incarcerated in a penal institution or otherwise pursuant to a conviction under any criminal law for more than thirty (30) days shall lose qualified status. However, such member shall regain qualified status ninety (90) days after his/her release and reapplication for qualified member status, provided he/she immediately satisfies the definition of physical residence within the Reservation Community. Upon release from incarceration, the member shall complete an application and provide documentation for Confirmation of Residency. Failure to provide such documentation, or to notify the Executive Committee or its designee of any change in sentencing which effects residency status within fourteen (14) days of release, will result in denial of confirmation of residency. Incarceration shall include living in a half-way house, court-ordered treatment, house arrest, or any other type of living situation in which the individual is not free to leave on their own will at any time.

- You must apply with per capita office to start your one (1) year. Date stamped by Member service clerk is start date of one (1) yr. NO back dating . It would be to your advantage to submit semi annual Confirmation of residency when qualified members do (May 1 & Nov 1)
