Capitol siege by pro-Trump rioters

Supporters of President Donald Trump take over balconies and inauguration scaffolding at the United States Capitol on Wednesday, January 6, 2021 in Washington, DC.

On Wednesday, pro-Trump rioters stormed the United States Capitol, interrupting a joint session of Congress in which representatives were gathered to certify President-elect Joe Biden's victory over President Donald Trump in the 2020 general election. Throughout the chaos, Trump continued to make baseless claims of election fraud on social media.

Russell W. Stansbury

September 30, 1952 - January 8, 2022

Russell Wayne Stansbury, aged 69, of Flandreau, South Dakota journeyed to the Spirit World peacefully on Saturday, January 8, 2022, at his home. Russell was born on September 30, 1952, to Leonard and Vivian (Williams) Stansbury.

In 1975, Russell met his future wife and lifelong partner, Debra Wakeman. They lived in Sioux Falls, SD the majority of their lives, where Russell worked at Jordan Millwork, John Morrells and Metz Baking. He later moved to Flandreau where he worked at Royal River Casino and Hotel. Later, he and Debra moved to Reno, NV where he worked at the Grand Sierra Resort before retiring and returning to Flandreau.

Russell was an avid Chicago Bears fan and enjoyed staying close to home, mowing the lawn, and taking life easy. During the past several years, he and Deb enjoyed traveling in their RV and spending time with close family and friends.

Russell is survived by his lifelong partner, Debra Wakeman, of Flandreau; his stepson Anthony Flammond, two brothers Rick and Leonard Stansbury; his sister Tina, his beloved dog Jayne as well as many nieces and nephews.

Russell was preceded in death by his parents, Leonard and Vivian (Williams) Stansbury, and brothers Dennis Stansbury and David Williams.

A prayer service will be held at 4:30 pm Thursday, January 13, 2022, at Hunkake Café (102 E 2nd St., Flandreau, SD 57028); followed by a memorial dinner at 5:00 pm.

Harold "Buzz" G. Rederth

September 28, 1943 - January 2, 2022

Harold "Buzz" G. Rederth, 78, Flandreau, passed away on Sunday, January 2, 2022 at Sanford USD Medical Center, Sioux Falls. Buzz was born in Pipestone, MN on September 28, 1943 to Arthur and Caroline (Allen) Rederth. Buzz loved spending his days visiting people he loved. Whether he was "Buzz", "Uncle Buzz", "Dad", or "Grandpa", the visit was always welcomed and left you with a warm smile. He had a heart of gold—if you needed anything, Buzz was there. He loved nature and taught those around him to slow down and appreciate the beauty that it offers. His words of wisdom will be remembered with every soaring eagle, magnificent sunset, and awesome tree. Fly High, Daddio!

Buzz is survived by his daughters: Michelle Red Earth, Kim Red Earth, Kelly (Dave) Ormseth, Merri (Zak) Rederth, Laura Rederth, and Andrea (Ben) Horan; his sister and best friend, Pat (Leroy) Schmidt; 17 grandchildren; and 21 great-grandchildren.

Buzz was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Caroline Rederth; his brother, Daniel Rederth; sisters: Caroline "Hop" (Sorenson) Rederth, Cheryl "Cherry" Rederth, Mary Kaye Rederth, and Donna Rederth; and three grandchildren: Tia Ormseth, Matthew Springer, and Michael Roy.

Funeral services will be 1:00 pm on Thursday, January 6, 2021 at Eastman Hall, Flandreau. All-night wake services will be both Tuesday and Wednesday at 7:00 pm at Eastman Hall, Flandreau. Burial will be at a later date at the First Presbyterian Cemetery, Flandreau.

Shawn A. Shortman Sr

August 13, 1974 - January 13, 2022

Shawn A. Shortman Sr., 47, of Flandreau, SD, passed away on Thursday, January 13, 2022 at Avera McKennan Hospital. He was born in Havre, MT to Darlyne M. Shortman and Frank Iron Shooter. Shawn was a member of the Fort Belknap Indian Community; Gros Ventre (Aaniiih). As a child he lived in Fort Belknap, Missoula, California and Washington. He was primarily raised on the Flathead Indian Reservation, MT, where he attended Two Eagle River School. Here he made many lifelong friends that he often talked about with his family and friends.

In 1997, Shawn moved to Flandreau, SD. He married his wife, Elizabeth (Montgomery) Shortman, on August 13, 1997, in the middle of the basketball court in which they met, known as Duncan Park. Shawn worked in and around Flandreau up until the time of his death including: the Royal River Casino, First American Mart, Prairie Junction, Daktronics and Tractor Supply. Shawn's hobbies were open gym basketball, listening to heavy metal music, attending concerts, gaming, watching horror movies, being a WWE fan, hunting and trapping. He most liked to talk trash, say things to others for shock value and when the time called for it, tell it like it was. Though he had a hard exterior of tattoos, piercings and heavy metal shirts, he won most people over with his outspoken personality. Shawn was definitely "one of a kind" and will be missed by many family and friends.

Shawn is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Shortman, Flandreau; his children: Isaiah James, Livingston, ND; Jordan Zollie, Flandreau; Dalyn Noah, Sioux Falls, SD; Justis Andrew, Brookings, SD; Shawn August Jr., Veronica Erin, and Jake Wyatt, all of Flandreau; two sisters Diane (Eric) Higley, Heyburn, ID; Birdie (Loren) Ukestine, Sioux Falls and his brother Shelby (Jennifer) Shortman, Flandreau. Shawn is survived by 7 grandchildren, many aunts, one uncle and many cousins. Shawn was preceded in death by his mother, Darlyne Shortman; his nephew raised as his brother, Vincent Pablo; his cousin Winona "Winnie" Williams; his father, Frank Iron Shooter; grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins.

Funeral services will be 1:00 pm Tuesday, January 18, 2022 at Wicoicaga Otipi Community Center, Flandreau. Visitation will begin 4:00 pm Monday, January 17, 2022 at the community center with an all-night wake service beginning at 7:00 pm.

Darren W. Roy

October 28, 1989 - January 19, 2022

Darren Webster Roy, Tasunka Duta, 32, Flandreau SD passed away Wednesday January 19, 2022, at the Avera Flandreau Hospital surrounded by his children and loved ones. Darren was born in Flandreau to the late Josh A. Roy and Raone M. Strutz (Littlewolf) on October 28th, 1989. He was given to and raised with his paternal grandparents Gerald and Patricia Roy (Taylor) until their passing. He was the biggest “Grandpa’s Boy” and was the family’s baby. He was a Sundancer at Crowdogs Paradise at a young age and was a member of the Native American Church. He was passionate about this way of life.

At age 13, Darren’s doctors discovered a rare autoimmune disease and a stomach tumor that would have a lasting impact throughout his life and on his health. He believed and relied upon his traditional ceremonies to assist in his healing while undergoing four major surgeries. Darren attended Flandreau Public School and then the Flandreau Indian School, where he met the late Jovan Charmayne Willow. They welcomed two beautiful daughters together, Diamond Willow in 2007 and Patricia Taylor in 2009.

He worked at the Royal River Casino where he made many friends and memories. Some of his roles at the casino included: security guard, cook, buffet attendant, and table games dealer. He also worked for the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Housing Authority maintenance, just like his grandpa, Jerry. Lastly, he worked as a custodian for the FSST Health Center. He was very proud of his employment there because it gave him the opportunity to have more time with his children. One of his proudest projects at the clinic, was decorating the pediatric rooms. He worked there alongside his sister, Taylor.

In 2015, during a dart banquet, he met Lindsey Morrow and soon after they established a relationship with one another. The two of them brought their families together where they accepted each other’s children as their own which includes: Eshiah, Brett, and Alexavier.

His hobbies included: darts, pool, boxing, softball, basketball, horseshoes, cornhole, cribbage, croquet, and video games. He is remembered by his loved ones for being loving, goofy, and strong. His love and affection for all children, especially his nieces and nephews were unmistakable.

Darren is survived by daughters, Diamond Roy, Patricia Roy, Eshiah Morrow, and sons Brett Poitra, Alexavier Poitra, all of Flandreau, SD, mother, Raone Strutz, Flandreau, SD, Hunka mother Sondra Wakeman, Flandreau, SD, brother, Daniel Folstrom, Naytahwaush, MN, sisters, Sylvia Roy, Flandreau, SD, Melena Folstrom, Flandreau, SD, Leslie Wadena, Naytahwaush, MN, grandmothers, Linda Littlewolf, Naytahwaush, MN and Betty Taylor, Flandreau, SD, Uncle Jean Paul Roy, Flandreau, SD, along with many other aunts, uncles, sisters, brothers, nieces, nephews and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Josh Roy; beloved brother, Konrad Roy, First love, Jovan Willow uncles: Miles Roy, Michael (Arnold) Roy, Theodore (Teddy Bear) Roy, and Isaac (Casey) Littlewolf; Aunts, Teresa Littlewolf and Jennifer Fyten; brothers: Michael A. Roy, Scott Anderson, Jr., Teddy Taylor, Toby Taylor, Kenneth Burshiem and paternal Grandparents, Gerald (Jerry) and Patricia Roy.

Funeral services will be 1:00 pm on Tuesday, January 25, 2022 at Wicoicaga Otipi Community Center, Flandreau, with burial in First Presbyterian Cemetery, Flandreau. There will be two days of all-night wake services beginning at 7:00 on Sunday, January 23, 2022 at the Wicoicaga Otipi Community Center, Flandreau.

Joe, Marty, and Ben Parsley stand behind the counters they plan to once again fill. The father and sons team plan to run and manage the bakery together along with almost the entire former bakery staff, which plans to return when the bakery reopens January 20th.

ous talks about, 'Should we buy this thing?' They run a very good business and have a great reputation. We weren't 100% sure about it because we didn't know if we could execute like they did and what the transition would look like....but the tipping point was having the support of Don and Ed to come help us train new bakers."

In fact, Marty had been messaging Don the morning of our interview, asking Don's thoughts on any sort of baking classes. "He told me, no" said Marty. "He said, you're going to learn everything you need to know right in your own bakery."

The Parsleys feel incredibly fortunate for the support and believe the business will thrive thanks to the Duncan's guidance. As well, thanks to the love given to the Duncans, the hand-made, old-fashioned pastries that roll out of the ovens each day and the bakery that for so long has called downtown Flandreau, home.

Because we know you are asking:

The Parsley's have scheduled the grand re-opening of the Flandreau Bakery for Thursday, January 20th at 6 am. The business will be closed, as it always has, on Sundays.

You will most likely see familiar faces behind the counter as many, if not most, of the bakery's long-time former staff is returning. Jesse Simon will be taking the early shift for baking and he plans to be at the store by 1am Monday through Saturday. The family is still doing some additional hiring, especially for the 3am baking shift.

Very little of the interior design or decor will change.

You should still be able to find whatever your favorite baked goods are, the three said that they plan to continue to serve the products that you have come to love.

The Parsley's plan to work together on the business decisions and share administrative responsibilities. Ben, the family said, is very handy and can fix just about anything. They add that he is also business savvy and brings an entrepreneurial mindset to the situation. He currently works as a data scientist consulting for ethanol plants, so they believe his knowledge of materials processing they feel will be beneficial. Ben currently plans to work every other Friday/Saturday at the bakery and will help with the 3am baking shift when needed. Marty, the boys said, is always positive and great to work for. Most people in the community may know him as the friendly, hard working guy that he is — he currently farms and works for the USPS. Marty plans to help fill in where needed on the 3am shift in the back. Joe works for Eide Bailly in Sioux Falls as a CPA. He plans to help with bookkeeping, payroll, and HR functions as well as fill in with weekend work (outside of tax season and football season).

"We want to keep it (the bakery) going for the town," said Ben. "Everybody meets here...it's like the town pub."

It's also a legacy business in Flandreau they know benefits other businesses, and that's something they all seem grateful for the opportunity to do.

"When I think of all of the things this town and a lot of the guys here have given me...the Booster Club, or what not," said Marty, "It's just a wonderful chance to say thank you and give back. It's just a win-win all around."

It was just weeks ago that fans from across the region lined up half-way down the block in downtown Flandreau in the wee hours of the morning, hoping for one last Flandreau Bakery donut. The Duncan Brothers, who for years had postponed retirement from the legacy bakery, were done. Don and Ed had long been looking to find the perfect person or persons to carry on the business that their father established 91 years ago. But after years of searching — and hoping, it just never seemed to be the right fit. At least not until the Marty Parsley family came along.

Sitting down in the oddly quiet, empty and dimly lit cafe that they now own, Marty and two of his boys, Joe and Ben, explained how purchasing the bakery had been in the back of their minds for quite some time. They had only begun discussing it more seriously over the past couple of months with each other, and with Don and Ed. The family knew of only one other serious inquiry from an entity that wanted to purchase the building and turn the bakery into an office space.

It didn't sit well with any of them.

"I told them I'd like to see the business stay open," said Joe. "I worked with them in the back for a few days. Then we started having some seri-

Why Cloth Masks Might Not Be Enough as Omicron Spreads

Time it takes to transmit an infectious dose of Covid-19

		PERSON NOT INFECTED IS WEARING
		Nothing	Cloth mask	Surgical mask	N95
PERSON INFECTED IS WEARING	Nothing	15 min.	20 min.	30 min.	2.5 hours
	Cloth mask	20 min.	27 min.	40 min.	3.3 hours
	Surgical mask	30 min.	40 min.	1 hour	5 hours
	N95	2.5 hours	3.3 hours	5 hours	25 hours

It will take 25 hours for an infectious dose of Covid-19 to transmit between people wearing non-fit-tested N95 respirators. If they're using tightly sealed N95s—where only 1% of particles enter the facepiece—they will have 2,500 hours of protection.

Note: Results published in Spring 2021. The CDC expects the Omicron variant to spread more easily.

The logo from Dakota Coffee Festival, a new rebrand and larger event to take place at the Sioux Falls Convention Center this March. Submitted

The first Dakota Coffee Festival takes place in Sioux Falls in March, featuring plenty of caffeinated tastings from local sellers to choose from.

Formerly the Sioux River Latte Slam, this event has been rebranded to the Dakota Coffee Festival, according to a press release.

Now relocated to the Sioux Falls Convention Center, the larger festival will feature more vendors and will take place Saturday, March 19 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. for coffee and tea tastings.

Attendees can taste samples from participating cafés and roasters from around the region. Coffee goers can visit and learn from experts in the industry and gather with others to celebrate all things coffee and tea.

The larger show will offer more to attendees while helping benefit a cause, The Community Outreach, and its effort to raise awareness for transportation needs in Sioux Falls. A portion of each ticket sold will benefit the Christian-based nonprofit, which offers crisis care and other options to the homeless.

And early registration helps attendees out too. The first 500 tickets sold include with them a free Dakota Coffee Festival mug.

Tickets for the event are on sale now and starting at $17.

Happy Birthday To ALL January Members

Dilly Bread/Rolls

6 Loaves

2 1/2C Cottage Cheese

1 Stick & 1 Tbl Butter

2T plus 2t Active dry yeast

1 1/4 C Warm water

5 eggs

1/2 C plus 2T Sugar

1/4 C Dried minced onion

2T Dill weed

2 1/2T Salt

1 1/4t Baking soda

10 1/2C All-purpose flour

Directions:

In a large sauce pan over medium heat, cook cottage cheese & butter until butter is melted. Cool to 110 to 115. In a large mixing bowl, dissolve yeast and water. Add eggs, sugar, onion, dill, salt, baking soda and cottage cheese mix. Add 3 cups of flour; beat until smooth. Add enough remaining flour to form a dough.

Turn onto a floured surface; knead until smooth and elastic, about 6-8 mins. Place in a greased bowl, turning once to grease top. Cover and let rise in a warm place until doubled, about 1 hour.

Punch dough down. Form into balls; place in a greased baking pan that has been sprayed with cooking spray. Cover and let rise until doubled, about 45 minutes.

Bake at 350 (for 20-25 minutes)
