The Raccoon Moon

A Native American Story How the Raccoon Got His Coat

Many years ago, Raccoon looked different than he does today. He used to be all silver, smooth from nose to the tip of his tail. This is the story of how all that changed.

Raccoon was heading home after a night of hunting when he passed Raven's home in the forest. Raccoon noticed that Raven was just inside the house, and as he passed he caught a glimpse of five beautiful silver rings – rings that Raven had stolen and stashed away for safekeeping. Raccoon instantly wanted the rings, and was determined to get them.

Later that night, after it grew dark, Raccoon put his plan into motion. He put on a mask to hide his face, and lit a torch to carry under his chin. You can imagine how scary he looked! He snuck quietly up to Raven's home, and started to make eerie sounds at the windows. "Ooooh! Ohohohooooh!" he cried.

Raccoon thought that Raven would be scared and run away, but instead, Raven ran straight out to meet the intruder. Raccoon had to change his plan, and so he led Raven into the woods with his spooky sounds, then crept back to the house while Raven was searching the woods.

Raccoon opened Raven's trunk and found the five rings, even more beautiful than he had thought! He was ready to run off with them when he realized he couldn't carry all five rings and the torch. Suddenly, he caught a glimpse of his tail and an idea came together – he slid all five rings onto his tail, and made off into the night.

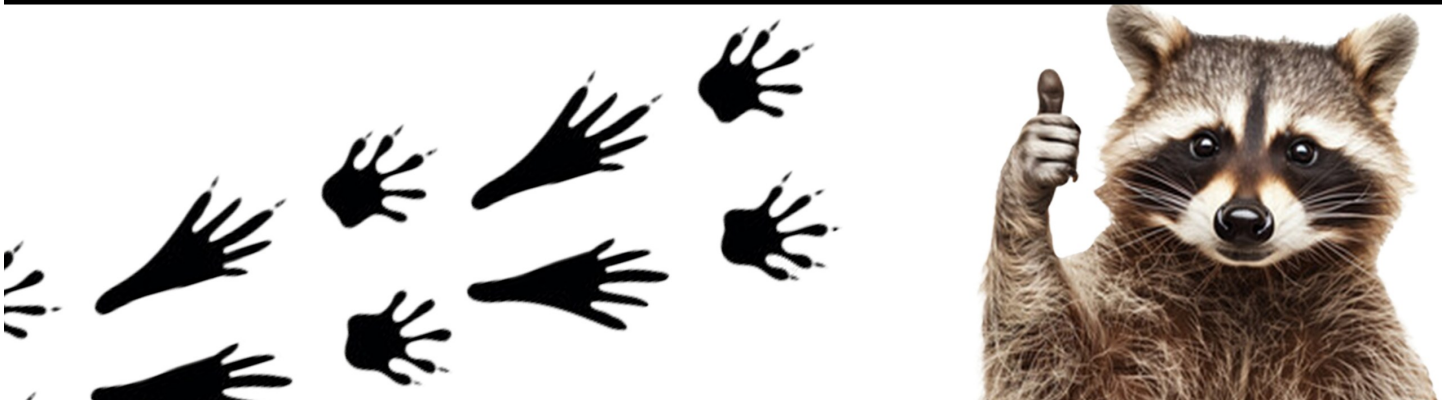

The next day, Raven realized his trunk had been moved. When he opened it, he knew that he had been tricked – that one of the forest animals had taken his beautiful rings. Raven went to each of them – Bear, Owl, Eagle, Chipmunk – but none seemed to know anything about the missing rings. Finally, Raven visited Raccoon.

“Hellooo, Raccoon,” said Raven. Raccoon met him gruffly. “I was sleeping, Raven,” he said, “What do you want?” “Someone has taken five silver rings from me,” Raven said. “Do you know anything about that?” “No, I don’t. May I go back to sleep now?” Raccoon retorted.

“Are you sure?” Raven asked. “I’m certain. And I’m tired. Why don’t you leave me be?” Raccoon said. Raven apologized and thanked Raccoon, but when Raccoon turned to go back to bed, Raven saw five dark rings of tarnish on his tail. “Ah hah!” Raven said. “It was you!”

Raccoon apologized and admitted what he had done, but Raven didn’t think that was enough. “From now on,” Raven said, “you will bear the marks of what you have done. Your face will show the mask with which you hid yourself, your hands will be blackened by the soot from your torch, and your tail will always be tarnished by what you stole.” And so it was.

Raccoon never stole from Raven again, but he’s never really stopped his thieving ways. He still comes to us in the night, looking for things he can take, wearing his bandit’s mask.

Interesting Valentine's Day Facts!

Christian Martyr

The Catholic Church celebrates St. Valentine's Day to honor the martyrdom of two men named Valentine who were executed by Emperor Claudius II in the 3rd Century. One legend says that Valentine wrote a note to Julia, the daughter of his jailer, on the night before his execution, signing it "Love, from your Valentine."

Pagan Festival

Possible replacement for the pagan festival of Lupercalia, which was celebrated on February 15th. Lupercalia was a fertility festival that involved sacrificing a goat and a dog, then slapping women and crop fields with the goat's hide.

Medieval Romance

*The 14th and 15th Centuries saw the rise of courtly love, which may have contributed to Valentine's Day becoming associated with romantic love. The English poet Geoffrey Chaucer's The Parlement of Foules, written in 1375, describes a gathering of birds choosing their mates on St. Valentine's Day.*

Cupid

The Roman reinterpretation of the Greek God of Love, Eros, led to the association of Cupid with Valentine's Day. Victorians began depicting Cupid on Valentine's Day Cards, a tradition that continues today.

Ester A. Howland

In the 1840's Ester A. Howland mass-produced Valentine's Day cards in Worcester, Massachusetts. She is known as the "Mother of the American Valentin."

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 22, 2025 – Wakpa Ipaksan

We are happy to inform you that we have received a grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in the amount of $19,949,725.00. This grant is awarded to the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe from the Community Change Grant and has been earmarked for the completion of several community projects.

The most anticipated is the completion of the Crescent Street Bridge. FSST Environmental Advancement Project will serve the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe (FSST) in Flandreau, South Dakota. It will create a zero-emission transportation corridor to replace the Crescent Street Bridge damaged in 2022. Preliminary plans include a spot for fishing off the west side of the bridge, a two-lane road, and a biking and walking path on the east side.

This corridor will provide clean transportation options and other infrastructure improvements, including ADA-accessible mobility options. A bike path, with electric bikes available to rent, is planned to begin near our headquarters, crossing through the city, across the new bridge, north to FIS and out to highway 13, turning north to the Wacipi Grounds. Collaboration with the City is ongoing to integrate our new bike path with one currently being planned by the city.

Additionally, the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe will partner with the Native Sun Community Power Development to support investments in green infrastructure, including roof retrofits and upgrades, new solar capacity, building weatherization, and the construction of multiple resilience hubs to support tribal operations in cases of emergency.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 15, 2025 – Flandreau, SD

Last year a vote was taken to ban South Dakota's Governor Kristi Noem from our territories at the request of our people. We met face to face with the governor and discussed not only the issues at hand but focused on how we can work together to resolve issues of mutual concern.

The Governor issued an apology to us for the misunderstanding, which was exacerbated by misinformation. Over the past several months, we have been made aware of many circumstances relating to the comments made by the Governor; only to find out that these issues are real and pose a grave threat to the stability of our Nations and the health and well-being of all our people.

Since our first meeting, the Governor has shown us that she is committed to protecting the people of South Dakota including the citizens of the nine Tribal Nations, who share mutual borders with the state. Our partnership with the City of Flandreau and the Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Plains are grateful for her support in the development of the Early Childhood Learning Center. The Governor's commitment to have a cooperative working relationship between all levels of Law Enforcement is evident in her efforts to bring a 13-week Police Officer Training Program to the state, which has successfully graduated nine Native American Law Enforcement Officers. It is for these reasons that we hereby dissolve the order of banishment.

Lastly, we wholeheartedly welcome her nomination and eventual appointment as the Secretary for Homeland Security and wish her much success in her future endeavors.

Sonesta Maho Beach
Resort, Casino & Spa!

St. Maarten

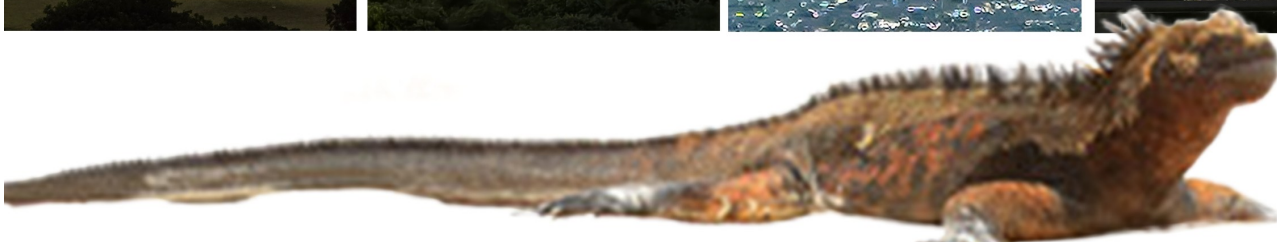

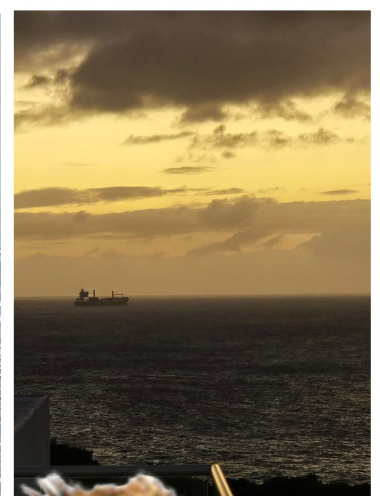

Sint Maarten

Our Nation has an opportunity to purchase the Sonesta Maho Beach Resort, Casino & Spa located on the Island of St. Maarten which is a part of an archipelago owned by the Netherlands. The island is shared with the country of France and is divided by a political boundary that residents and guest can freely pass and visit.

Friendship Treaty

The Friendship Treaty with Sint Maarten and the Netherlands, which is also called the Dutch-American Friendship Treaty or DAFT, allows U.S. Citizens to easily obtain residency in St. Maarten without needing a separate work permit, essentially giving them the same rights as Dutch Nationals living on the island. This being a bi-lateral agreement between the United States and the Netherlands. Under this treaty our membership can live, work and retire in St. Maarten with or without this purchase.

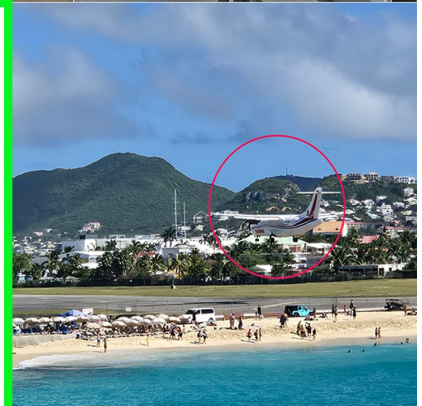

All Inclusive Resort

The 420 Room Resort is located minutes from the airport overlooking the Maho Bay. Planes fly directly overhead while on-lookers and beach goers capture some amazing photos of planes landing just yards from the beach.

One of the many attractive features of the resort is it being an all inclusive vacation. This feature allows guests access to a wide variety of amenities located across the 10 acre resort. The wrist band not only gives you access to your room but to all the dining establishments throughout the resort; including the Lounges, Bars and Swim Up Bars. All the food, sun and drinks you can possibly enjoy.

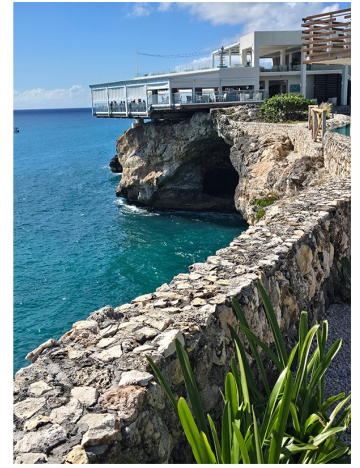

Guests of the 9th and 10th floor have exclusive access to the roof top lounges as well as a 24 Hour Snack Bar filled with sandwiches, pastries, sweets, fruits and beverages.

Adult Only Resort

The Azul Restaurant located on the point of the resort, hangs over the cliff and offers guests magnificent views of the bay while they dine.

Guests must have a special wrist band to access this part of the resort. The hotel rooms are enormous and come with their own kitchen.

Rooms on the bottom level enjoy their own lazy river, where they can rest and swim under tropical foliage. A lazy river surrounds the bottom level of the hotel and flows into a man made lagoon, where beach goers can bare it all if they choose.

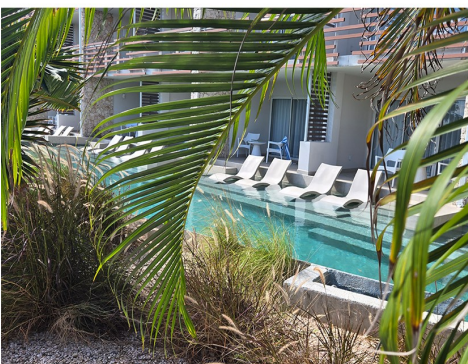

A convention center is located in the Adult Only Resort Hotel where meetings, conventions and special occasions take place. A newly remodeled work out facility has just been completed and is shared by all guests.

MEMBER BENEFITS

If this purchase is made a reality, it is the vision of the president to make available accommodations for our membership to use year round. Members would need to obtain a U.S. Passport in order to access the island and the resort. When we arrive, our lodging, food and beverages would be included with our stay; our only cost would be our airfare.

Casino Royale & Retail Mall

Casino Royale is located directly across from the Resort and is included in the purchase price of the property. It features 300 Gaming devices as well as 21 Table Games comprised of Blackjack, Roulette & Crap Tables and has a live poker room. The atmosphere is quite similar to our first casino, small and intimate. The Top Level of the Casino features a high end Asian Fusion restaurant and a lounge that overlooks the street below.

During the day, locals dominate the scene and by night, the guests of the surrounding resorts line the streets in elegant attire. The property also owns the retail mall that starts from the east side of the resort and continues several blocks north, on both sides of the street.

High end restaurants, jewelry stores, lounges, karaoke bars, burger joints, and gift shops adorn the street on both sides. The property also owns several buildings that are leased to a wide variety of tenants, one being a strip club, that seems from the road, to be a hoppin' place almost anytime of the day.

The Resort, Casino & Shopping Mall all are powered by a solar farm just blocks from the resort. The solar farm provides enough energy to power the properties for up to 8 hours per day, which proved quite useful during the last hurricane 7 years ago. While the island itself struggled to return power to its residents, the resort was able to continue it's operation due to the solar farm.

Legislative Update

On the last day of our trip, we were given an update as to where the Marijuana initiative, developed by Native Nations, was in the parliamentary process by Mr. Brian Hall. Mr. Hall is the legal mind behind navigating our legislation through the parliamentary approval process. Currently there are no marijuana laws on the island, which has caught the government's attention as an additional source of revenue to supplement their tourism dollars, which is their only source of income.

Mr. Hall stated that there are two more parliamentary committee's that must approve our marijuana initiative; once approved and signed into law, we will be granted a 10 year exclusive license to develop, cultivate, sell and distribute marijuana on the island. This, in itself, is a monumental opportunity, that when this initiative becomes law on the island, it will be a game changer for our nation.

Coupled with the opportunity of purchasing the resort and the possibility of combining the two business ventures, we could see the end of depending on Federal Assistance in the near future. The opportunities for our membership from home ownership on the island to retirement, employment and entrepreneurial ventures are endless.

As with any possibility it is easy to be blinded by the sunlight dancing off the waves but the necessary questions must be asked and answered; mitigating as much risk to the membership as possible. If we can pull it off financially and it provides a good return on our investment, I'm all in.

Lastly, it may be time to introduce the Indian Taco to the Island's Cuisine. Any takers?
